

Description:

As a working student at the Christiane Noelting Dressage Center you will be part of a dedicated team responsible for providing the best care possible to the equines on the property.

At CNDC we take pride in being one of California's finest equestrian facilities. We offer supreme service for the horses, training and lessons up to Grand Prix as well as numerous clinics and other events throughout the year.

Daily Tasks of a Working Student:

- Riding multiple horses depending on working student's experience
- Hand walking or lunging horses
- Horse care: washing, grooming, pulling manes, administering first aid, clipping, blanketing
- Turning out horses in pasture or hot walker
- Once a week full barn cleaning and feeding with other working students
- Tack maintenance
- Occasional barn upkeep: mowing, raking, etc.
- Public area general care: keeping clubhouse, kitchen, and restroom presentable
- Prepping facility for shows and clinics

Five Signs That You're A Strong Candidate:

1. Dedication to horses' health and their well being
2. Self-Motivated team player
3. Willing to learn or further equine knowledge
4. Detail oriented with a "Get Stuff Done" attitude
5. Willing to go above and beyond assigned duties

What to expect:

- Room (single or double)
- Car to share with other CNDC working students
- Regular lessons with Christiane or assistant trainers
- Show horses in competitions
- Exposure to all aspects of equine management
- Pocket money depending on experience level
